

CITY OF ANGELS (5 DAYS / 4 NIGHTS)

Cultural, heritage and historical tour.

Day 1

Arrive in Bangkok. Meet-and-greet by the company's representative.

Each tourist gets a gift from our company: an orchid necklace, branded bag, local SIM card, and a folder with essential information.

Transfer to the hotel. During the transfer each guest is offered a bottle of still water and a cool towel.

Check-in at the hotel at the separate counter. Each guest is offered a complimentary soft drink. Leisure time.

An evening cruise of Chao Phraya. Mae Nam Chao Phraya ("the King's river") flows through Indochina and is the major river in Thailand. Its feeders head in the north of the Kingdom and the estuary is at the shore of the Gulf of Siam on the South China Sea. It is the estuary of the river where the Thai navigation history started several centuries ago. Traditional flat boats, barges loaded with rice, Chinese junks and posh restaurant boats offering fantastic delicacies ply the King's River.

Dinner is served on a double-decked pleasure craft. The company representative greets participants and announces the program of the event. During the evening, the guests can take pictures with Bangkok's most famous sights in the background and dance to music performed by a band.

Breakfast at the hotel.

The Heart of Siam. This guided tour includes visit to the Royal palace, Emerald Buddha temple and the temple of the Reclining Buddha (Wat Pho). Built in the 16th century, Wat Pho is regarded as the oldest temple in the city. The temple features a 46 m long, 15 m high statue of the Reclining Buddha. Viewpoints from the 77th and 84th floors of one of Asia's tallest hotels, Baiyoke Sky, offers a breathtaking bird's-eye panoramas of Bangkok. A buffet-style dinner will be served on the 77th floor. Visits to Southeast Asia's largest aquarium and jewelry and souvenir mall are also included in the program.
